- drowning;
- hypothermia/hyperthermia;
- concussion;
- dislocation;
- contracting water based diseases;
- various slipping or falling related injuries;
- injuries associated with collision with other water users or water obstacles;
- weather related injuries, including sunburn and heatstroke.

Participants are responsible for their own actions and their involvement in the activity

RULES

Participants must comply with the following rules:

- You must follow any safety warnings and/or instructions displayed or given to you by a member of staff. Ask a member of staff if you are unclear.
- Personal property belonging to you is at all times your sole responsibility. Valuables must be placed in the lockers provided.
- You must act responsibly and sensibly at all times.
- You must notify the staff if you are pregnant
- You must not participate if you are under the influence of alcohol or non-prescription drugs.
- You must at all times wear a buoyancy aid when on or by the water.
- You must be water confident (you must be capable of floating in the water supported by a buoyancy aid)
- You must at all times wear any safety equipment that is provided to you.
- You must at all times keep with your group and follow your guide's instructions. You must never stray away from the group.
- You must wear appropriate clothing in accordance with our guidance on our booking FAQ pages, any questions should be directed to staff before booking.

We may terminate a Participant's involvement in the activity (without refund) if they fail to comply with any of the above Rules.

HEALTH & FITNESS TO PARTICIPATE

We are not qualified to express an opinion that you are fit to safely participate. You must take sole responsibility for your own medical conditions (if any) and you must obtain professional or specialist advice from your doctor before participating.
